It's a Nay for the Chamber. I am pretty disappointed in their lack of outreach to the major stakeholders. Not to mention the lack of any sort of real tactical plan for their shoot....

Curious to know who the "stars" are though!

Got it. Thanks Dan. Hey, another question for you. Last year, when the City approved the minimum wage hike for hotels, Councilmember O'Farrell introduced a motion asking for a study of historic hotels over 150 rooms to consider exempting them from the hike (went along with a Jose Huisar motion). This was primarily done for the Roosevelt Hotel. As I recall, that motion was that city staff was to report back by July 1, 2015 ... which would be tomorrow. Any chance someone from CD13 could follow up on this?

Thanks,
Leron
